Ecumenical and Interreligious Ministries of the Council of Bishops of The United Methodist Church

Application for Scholarship for
The United Methodist Ecumenical and Interreligious Training and
The National Workshop on Christian Unity Gathering
May 1-4, 2017
Minneapolis, Minnesota

This application is for seminary students and other young adults (aged 21-35) who will be attending UMEIT and NWCU for the first time. The scholarship is in the amount of $300 to cover registration and a portion of other associated costs. All travel, lodging and meals are the responsibility of the recipient. Acceptance of the scholarship commits the recipient to: 1. attend all UMEIT portions of the NWCU, 2. write a short reflection paper on the event with accompanying photos, and 3. turn the paper and photos into jhawxhurst@umc-cob.org within 2 weeks of the end of the event. This application is due to Jean Hawxhurst at the aforementioned email address no later than Feb. 28, 2017. Contact her with questions.

Name: _____

Address:_____

_____

Email: _____

Cell Phone: _____

Local Church and Annual Conference in which membership is held:

_____

Jurisdiction: _____

Laity, Elder or Deacon status: _____

IF A SEMINARY STUDENT FILL IN THESE BLANKS:

Seminary: _____

Estimated year of Graduation: _____

Signature of Seminary Official Who Supports Your Desire to Attend this Event:

_____ Date: _____

ALL: Please answer the following questions:

1. Why do you want to attend the NWCU and UMEIT?

2. Why should you be chosen from among all the applicants?

3. What are you doing to advance ecumenical engagement in your context?

Your Signature and Covenant to Uphold the Conditions Mentioned at the Beginning of the Application:

_____

Date: _____

(Please mail this completed form to: Rev. Dr. Jean Hawxhurst, Ecumenical Staff Officer, The Council of Bishops, c/o 100 Maryland Ave NE, Suite 300, Washington, DC 20002, or email it to her at jhawxhurst@umc-cob.org. This is the same address to which you will send your reflection paper within two weeks of the end of the event.)