SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Ecumenical Institute at Bossey Fall 2017 (for the Fall 2018 Graduate Session)

The Ecumenical Institute was founded by The World Council of Churches in Switzerland in 1946 as an “ecumenical laboratory,” bringing together students of ecumenism from across the Christian community. The Council of Bishops (COB) is pleased to offer an annual scholarship to one student to participate in the “Complementary Certificate in Ecumenical Studies”(CC) through Bossey in conjunction with the University of Geneva. A total amount of $10,000 US will be sent to Bossey on behalf of the chosen student. Applicants for this scholarship must be active members of The United Methodist Church, be between the ages of 22 and 30, be preparing through an approved seminary for vocational ministry in The UMC, and be accepted by Bossey into this program. The deadline to receive application to Bossey is November 2017, so completed applications for this scholarship must be received by the Council of Bishops’ office no later than September 15, 2017. Notification will be given to the scholarship recipient no later than October 6, 2017 so the recipient can complete his or her application to Bossey in time. For more information about the CC in Ecumenical Studies, go to www.institute.oikoumene.org.

If you are chosen to receive this scholarship, then you are agreeing to:

- 1. Take responsibility for your own travel, meals, insurance and application directly to Bossey (this form is solely for a scholarship from the COB. It is not application into the program.)*
- 2. Write a 3-page report of your experience at Bossey and turn it in to the COB office. Include at least 3 photos and send it to jhawxhurst@umc-cob.org, within two weeks of the end of the course.*
- 3. Agree to be spotlighted in information sent out by the COB as promotional material, and agree to present a report to the COB, or its Leadership Team on Ecumenical and Interreligious Relations, if requested.*
